BROWNINGTON

Mrs. Lucy Woodbury from Island Pond has come to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Lorenzo Grow.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Going are visiting friends in New Hampshire this week and will attend the state grange at Rutland.

John Cheney, who sold his farm some time ago, has moved to the Cheney place in the village and his brother William lives with them.

The Ladies' Aid society and Sunday school recently sent a missionary barrel of clothing to Grandview Normal school at Spring City, Tennessee.

EVANSVILLE

W. S. McDowell is contemplating putting in scenery for his hall and other quite extensive improvements in the near future.

There will be a Christmas sale Friday, Dec. 20th, afternoon and evening in the hall. At eight o'clock there will be an entertainment. The Schubert club of Barton will give a concert. Reading by Miss Twombly of Orleans. Supper at Mr. McDowell's house. A witch will also tell fortunes and sell mystery packages.

The drama "A Country Kid" which was given recently by the Evansville dramatic club was a success in every sense of the word. The parts were all well taken and it is doubtful if better talent could be found in many of our larger towns. It is hoped that we may have several more as good entertainments this present winter. After paying all expenses the sum of $38 was cleared.

WEST CHARLESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spencer and little son, Lyndon have been here to visit her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Will Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kinne were in Lyndon Thanksgiving to visit their niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whitcomb.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Ingalls (Ina Campbell) of Hartland are very sorry to hear of the death of their small son.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Allen of Island Pond were in town last week and his mother, Mrs. Maggie Allen, accompanied them home.

Charles Ewens had a partial shock Sunday. Dr. Gilfillan of Beebe Plain was called. A trained nurse from St. Johnsbury is caring for Mr. Ewens.

Miss Gertrude Hanson of Manchester, N. H., has been visiting at the home of her uncle, Clarence Ewens, and also her cousin, Mrs. Harry Dane.

Bert Hamilton of Woodsville, N. H., made his father a short visit while here on account of the death of his cousin, Mrs. Quimby of West Derby. His wife accompanied him as far as West Derby.

The remains of Mrs. Arthur Quimby were brought here last week for interment. She died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Hamilton of West Derby, where she had been for several months. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton formerly lived here and the deceased was born here.
